COMMON SENSE

Leads most intelligent people to use only medicines of known composition. Therefore it is that Dr. Pierce's medicines, the makers of which print every ingredient entering into them upon the bottle wrappers and attests its correctness under oath, are daily growing in favor. The composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines is open to everybody. Dr. Pierce being desirous of having the search light of investigation turned fully upon his formulae, being confident that the better the composition of his medicines is known, the more will their great curative merits be recognized. Being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs. Examine the formula on each bottle wrapper—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomachic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that), does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-over coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption. Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unqualified endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials. They are not given away to be experimented with but are sold by all dealers in medicines at reasonable prices.

ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES

said the man who for the first time saw an electric fan. Why not blow yourself to one for this summer's heat? You can have a fine mountain breeze no matter how high the thermometer climbs. In your house.

Wired for Electricity?

If not, better let us wire it. You have no idea how many comforts and conveniences will be within your reach once you have the wiring. It doesn't cost much. Ask us how little.

GIRL KILLS A DOCTOR.

The second woman in 16 months to pull a pistol on Dr. Martin W. Auspitz murdered him at dusk last night in the vestibule of the flat house at 131 west One Hundred and Thirtieth street, New York. She is Miss Sarah Koten, a girl of 22 years, who, until six weeks ago, was a nurse in Dr. Auspitz's private hospital. Her plea is that he had wronged her.

From 11 o'clock yesterday morning until 7:10 in the evening Sarah Koten sat on the steps of the home where she has been boarding at 137 west One Hundred and Thirtieth street, New York, with a black bag such as doctors carry on the step beside her. In the bag was a new revolver. Diagonally across the street was the house where sometime in the course of the day, she expected Dr. Auspitz to go calling on a patient. There was no patient except a hypothetical one the girl had invented. The doctor, down at his office in east Ninety-third street, got a telephone call in a woman's voice saying that he was wanted at 131 west One Hundred and Thirtieth street.

The voice said that there was a sick person there. The name was something like Dr. Mario. Dr. Auspitz, recollecting that he had a patient of some such name, replied that he would get around in the course of the day, and toward evening he picked up his satchel and started. He got off a car and walked into the house.

The girl across the street snatched her black bag and strode across the way. She walked up the steps as far as the outer door of the house where the doctor had gone, then wheeled around and stood leaning against the brass railing of the stoop. The doctor rummaged through all four floors of the house and at every door got the reply:

"There's nobody like Dr. Mario living here."

Finally he gave up the hunt and had just emerged through the inner door of the main hallway when Sarah Koten came forward, pulling the pistol from her bag. She did not say anything. She just fired. The doctor's kit went flying one way and his cigar the other. He fell backward, bumped against the door and slid to the floor. He died in a short time. The girl was arrested.

Southern Literature.

[Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
New York, June 3.—Southern literature is to receive special recognition from New York University during the coming session of the summer school. Professor Charles William Kent, head of the English department of the University of Virginia, has been secured to give a special course of thirty hours on "Southern Literature, With Special Studies of Southern Poets." This course is peculiarly fitting for the University, as the summer school on University Heights is located within half a mile of the cottage where Poe wrote the "Bells" and many other of his poems. One of the features of this course will be excursions to this literary landmark. Professor Kent announces that he will trace the development of southern letters from the settlement of Jamestown to the present era. The poets used to illustrate the later periods will be Poe, Simms, Tinsley, Hayne, Ryan, Thompson, Lanier, Hope, Mrs. Weston, and several living poets. Professor Kent is president of the Poe Memorial Association and editor of several of Poe's works. He is also engaged in editing a collection of southern literary works. Professor Kent's summer lectures will be given close to the Hall of Fame, for which the friends of Poe have not yet been able to secure a tablet for that southern writer. Professor Kent will give also a course on Shakespeare as a dramatic artist.

SUICIDE OF A PHYSICIAN.

After holding the police at bay for six hours Dr. Joseph Pospisiel, an employee of the Pension Office, in Washington, shot himself through the brain yesterday morning while insane. Laboring under a delusion that an attempt was being made to murder him, he fired at pedestrians and into the homes of his neighbors, and when the police came he reloaded his pistol and fired upon them, preventing their near approach to the house. Altogether he fired about 50 shots in this way, none of which, however, took effect.

Believing himself Pospisiel passed his three little children through the second-story window to persons in the adjoining house. His wife remained with him, endeavoring to quiet him, but becoming alarmed when he opened fire on the policemen, she joined her children in the neighbor's house. At the time he shot himself Pospisiel was sitting in the second-story window of his home. He first rolled up his sleeve and injected cocaine in his arm to steady himself for the fatal shot. He plunged forward to the ground and died on the way to the hospital. Dr. Pospisiel went to Washington from Wisconsin about 18 years ago.

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS.

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 6, 1908.
All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the dog or canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $5 or $5.
JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH, 1908,
Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that other pay on one or two dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.
Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.
In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.
Attention is also called to the fact that while the payment of a license tax is required by the laws of the city whether a dog is kept on the premises of the owner at all times or not, yet the payment of such tax does not entitle the dog to the unrestricted use of the streets and alleys of the city, both day and night, for it is provided by law that "The Mayor in addition at any and all times, in his discretion, by proclamation shall declare that all such dogs as above licensed shall be securely muzzled, and if any such dogs be found running at large during the continuance of such proclamation without the required muzzle they shall be seized by the police force, or other persons designated by the Mayor for such purposes," and conveyed to a suitable place and destroyed.
The following is a copy of Section 54 of the License Law: "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."
